PEN PICTURES

BRIAN LLOYD. A qualified architect and native of St. Asaph. Welsh under-23 international and formerly kept goal for Rhyl, Stockport and Southend.

ALAN HILL. Chester-born and only 19, has just made the first team after two years on the ground staff.

JOEY JONES. A six-foot defender with honours for Wales at youth and under-23 levels. Bangor-born and two years a first-team regular.

MICKEY EVANS. Another Welsh under-23 international with well over 200 League appearances since joining Wrexham from Wolves on a free transfer.

GARETH DAVIES. A product of Wrexham's youth team and converted from forward to defender. Also a Welsh under-23 cap.

GRAHAM WHITTLE. A Liverpudlian, made his debut at 17, four years ago, and has stayed in the team ever since. Brother of Crystal Palace's Alan.

IAN MOIR. An experienced midfield man from Aberdeen. Been with Manchester United, Blackpool, Chester and Shrewsbury and now in his second spell at Wrexham.

MEL SUTTON. Born in Birmingham and started his career with Aston Villa. Played in European soccer with Cardiff before moving to Wrexham and has a knack of scoring vital goals.

BILLY ASHCROFT. A 21-years old Liverpool striker who has also played in European soccer. Has scored nearly 40 goals in 120 appearances.

DAVID SMALLMAN. A Welsh international and Wrexham's most valuable possession. Leading scorer this season and sought after by some of the big clubs.

ARFON GRIFFITHS. Apart from a season and a half at Arsenal, has spent 13 seasons at Wrexham, his home town. A consistent scorer.

WREXHAM

North Wales was intensely proud of its only League club when Wrexham reached the 6th round of the Cup last season and went down valiantly at Burnley.

To shine for the local club is to earn a place in the history of this part of Wales and Wrexham have had a few such heroes since they joined the League in 1921 as one of the original members of the Third Division North. The late Tommy Bamford, who once scored 44 goals in a season is probably the most legendary, while Wyn Davies, who scored a 20-minute hat-trick in a 10–1 win over Hartlepool, is another.

Wrexham are the oldest soccer club in Wales, having been founded in 1873 and last season, in addition to their Cup feats, finished fourth in the Third Division. What a fabulous way to celebrate a centenary! Yet in 1966 they were almost down and out.

Their fans stood by them and since then Wrexham have built a £100,000 stand and have provided floodlights which will compare with anything in the lower divisions of the League.

Apart from eight seasons which they were forced to spend in Division Four, Wrexham's League existence has been spent entirely in Division Three and they have, therefore, only come into opposition with North End in the one season, 1970–71, when North End were last in present company.

They gave North End two hard games, the first one being won by us at Deepdale 3–2, thanks to two goals by Gerry Ingram and another by Alex Spark, and the one at Wrexham ending in a goalless draw.

Hopes that they would continue this season where they left off in May have not been fulfilled. After some good results, they have slipped back and are just breaking even at this point of the season. Last week they got an excellent 1–1 draw against promotion-chasing Charlton at the Valley, despite having been beaten 3–0 by the Londoners at the Racecourse ground.

Their away record of:

is better than the average and if they had not dropped eight points at home they would have been up with the leaders.

Mel Holden scored the goal which gave us a 1–1 draw at Wrexham just over a month ago and if North End can produce last Saturday's form plus improved finishing power it should be an interesting match.

MANAGER

After 17 years as a professional footballer it was natural that John Neal should stay in the game and for the last seven years at Wrexham he has found himself caught up in the fervour which the Welsh put into their causes.

A Geordie from a small village near Sunderland, he had played around 400 League games for Hull City, Swindon Town, Aston Villa and Southend United before he became trainer at Wrexham. Then, five years ago, he took over as manager in succession to Alvyn Williams.

He guided them from the 4th to the 3rd Division in 1969–70 and last season, when they just missed promotion and got into the 6th round of the F.A. Cup, he was twice 3rd Division Manager of the North.

KEEP OFF

Please do not damage the advertisements facing the pitch or obscure them, and KEEP OFF THE GRASS. The playing area must be kept clear of spectators. Needless damage is done when supporters go on to it. THIS MUST CEASE, otherwise well-behaved youngsters as well as offenders may be penalised. You can cheer from the terraces.

RECORD REQUESTS

Supporters wishing to have a record played in the pre-match or half-time entertainment spots over the public address system should send their requests to the Secretary, Deepdale, Preston, marking their envelope in the bottom left hand corner "D.J."

CHARLT

It would be all too easy after our Cup defeat to rely on the old platitude "now we can concentrate on the League", but we must face the fact that all the players were dreadfully disappointed at the outcome of the game with Carlisle. To have played so well and still lost was a bitter pill and it is only natural that we should now look around and see if there are any blessings from our defeat.

In the first place it gave us great satisfaction to have been able to fully extend a First Division side and this offers re-assurance that not only have we got the ability to climb out of the Third Division but when we do we should be able at least to hold our own.

Nobody likes to lose a cuptie. There is too much glamour attached to these matches and so much in the way of financial reward for both club and players but it leaves us with a single purpose and we intend to face this realistically.

I would have been glad if we had had a mid-week League match to enable us to get the cuptie out of our system all the quicker but instead we face Wrexham, who will be remembered or the hard game they gave us last month on the Racecourse ground.

Wrexham, incidentally, could probably tell us a lot about chasing the League and the Cup. They had a magnificent Cup un last season, dismissing Crystal Palace, Middlesbrough and Southampton before falling to Burnley in the sixth round and on that evidence they are not a team to be treated lightly. But what happened to them in the League? They finished ourth, one place off promotion to the Second Division for he first time in their history. One wonders if they reflect on vhat might have been.

For ourselves, we realise that we have reached a juncture vhere every point gained keeps us in touch with the pro- notion runners. We have to win all our home matches and ve can't afford to lose games away from home.

Wrexham are just the start of a programme of 21 matches vhich will be crucial and we shall treat this as one of the ardest home fixtures left. We got a hard draw at Wrexham nd we hope to go one better this afternoon.

It only needs a glance at the League table to realise that there are a whole lot of other clubs with the same purpose in mind and the successful ones will only get there on their merits.

The players are fit enough, have plenty of enthusiasm and showed that in every aspect of the game they were a match for Carlisle so really we fear nobody. We are half way there and with the tremendous support we are getting we feel we can make it the whole of the way.

OUR DIVISION

The most significant change in the League table since the pre-Christmas period has been the rise of Charlton Athletic, who jumped from sixth position to second. They have, in fact, changed places with Swindon Town and if they had not unexpectedly dropped a point at home on Saturday to Wrexham they would have been level on points with Blackburn Rovers.

Today, Blackburn and Charlton meet at Ewood, which gives clubs below them a chance to make up some of the leeway on at least one of them. As there are only four points between the top eight teams, this position is likely to arise almost weekly to the end of the season.

Plymouth are another team who have improved their position while North End's record of having dropped only three points at home is the best in the Division.

They have, however, slipped from their position of leading scorers, which they held earlier in the season, five clubs having exceeded their total of 38, with Colchester United the leaders on 42.

Down at the bottom, Huddersfield, after some alarming defeats, managed to halt the slide with a draw last week at Bournemouth but, when games in hand are taken into consideration, they are still in a serious plight along with Tranmere, Chesterfield and Aldershot, while Brighton, once in the top half of the table, are not much better off.

Most of these clubs are no strangers to the Fourth Division but Huddersfield, now as low as they have ever been, need to begin their revival if they are to avoid an all-time record of having dropped from the First Division to the Fourth in four seasons.

The bottom four clubs are of course relegated from the Third Division and time is running out.

SNAP SHOTS

It is not often brothers play together in the same League team and when they are twins and only 18 it is bound to make headlines.

That has happened to Ron and Paul Futcher, transferred to Luton from Chester six months ago and now raising the Londoners' hopes of escaping a quick return to the Second Division.

North End's most famous brothers were, of course, Frank and Hugh O'Donnell, who figured in a double transfer from Glasgow Celtic and played many games together for the League side. Before them there were Frank Gallimore, who was a fixture in the defence for several seasons, and his brother Len, who never really made it as a regular first teamer and then there were the Anders brothers, Harry, who was the most successful, and John.

Now we have Mike and Stuart Baxter and there is every confidence that before long there will once again be two brothers in our League side.

Fifteen years in top class soccer, not only as a star performer but also as a model to others in the game, have rightly earned Ian Callaghan the honour of M.B.E.

The Liverpool winger has never been booked or sent off in that time, yet has never spared any effort on the field, has been as dedicated in his training as in actual matches and has played in nearly 700 games for Liverpool.

We share manager Bob Paisley's sentiments that, so far as football is concerned, the honour could not have gone to a better man.

What a disastrous 3rd round Cup day for Lancashire! Burnley, Manchester City, Blackpool, Blackburn, Preston and Oldham all out and Everton, Manchester United, Bolton and Bury all forced to replay home ties. Only Liverpool got through at the first attempt.

Blackpool's downfall was contrived by two of their ex-players. Bill Rafferty got the all-important goals for Plymouth whose manager is Tony Waiters, former 'Pool goalkeeper.
